

Fully Booked - The Equality Act 2010 – has the Act simplified equality laws?

12 June 2012 18:00 for 18:30 start

Central London Branch

Subject area: Employment law

Venue: Cavendish Conference Centre, 22 Duchess Mews, London W1G 9DT

Speaker(s):

Jahad Rahman, Employment Law Solicitor and Director, Rahman Lowe Ltd, Canary Wharf

Jahad specialises in employment and discrimination law. He advises commercial clients on all aspects of employment law including collective disputes, discrimination, whistleblowing, unfair dismissal and breach of contract claims. Jahad is also a Visiting Lecturer at BPP Law School. He regularly speaks at conferences and seminars and provides bespoke training on employment and equality issues. His clients include Danone, Elizabeth Arden and Vivienne Westwood.

Event details:

The session will include:

- Overview of the Equality Act and how it is working in practice
- Round up of recent important cases
- How to manage discrimination claims effectively

For more information:

Copyright CIPD 2012
151 The Broadway, London SW19 1JQ, UK
www.cipd.co.uk
Incorporated by Royal Charter, Registered Charity no. 1079797